Purchases Made Outside of Steam Valve cannot provide refunds for purchases made outside of Steam (for example, CD keys or Steam wallet cards purchased from third parties). above) does not exist anymore or if there is another legal ground for its deletion. This gives you access to your Personal Data, allows you to rectify and delete it where necessary and to object to its use where you feel necessary. These exceptions will be clearly marked as nonrefundable on the Store page prior to purchase. 3.2 Transaction and Payment Data In order to make a transaction on Steam (e.g. to purchase), you may need to provide payment data to Valve to enable the transaction. You can opt out or withdraw your consent to receive marketing emails at any time by either withdrawing the consent on the same page where you previously provided it or clicking the "unsubscribe" link provided in every marketing email. On this website, IP anonymization has been activated. If, for any reason, Steam is unable to issue a refund via your initial payment method, your Steam Wallet will be credited the full amount. Refunds on Bundles You can receive a full refund for any bundle purchased on the Steam Store, so long as none of the items in the bundle have been transferred, and if the combined usage time for all items in the bundle is less than two hours. We do not require you to provide or use your real name for the setup of a Steam User Account. Renewable Subscriptions For some content and services, Steam offers periodic (e.g. monthly, yearly) access that you pay for on a recurring basis. Funds used to purchase the gift will be returned to the original purchaser. Finally, you can contact us with a request at questions@valvesoftware.com, however, before providing access to, or deleting any, Personal Data, based on a request received via email, we will need to verify your identity utilizing the "Proof of Ownership" process described at . After the grace period, Personal Data associated with your account will be deleted subject to section 4.
